Get Married Abroad

Mesmerizing scenery, fascinating history and enchanting panoramas: Sorrento coast delivers an impossibly romantic wedding destination, perfect for couples who don't want to travel too far for a stunning wedding abroad.

A wedding reception on the Sorrento coast can be as low key or grand as you would like.

It is possible to arrange receptions in a stunning luxury hotel, in an exclusive Villa or a local Italian trattoria or Farm. We have a list of venues that we work closely with where we can organize settings of great effect, live music and customize your special day exactly how you want it.

What makes Sorrento coast a great wedding destination?

It's a lot closer to home, making it more accessible for family and friends to celebrate with you on your wedding day.

It is possible to organize a wedding here which is much more similar to those you are familiar with in the UK & Ireland.

It is even possible to organize a trip before the wedding to familiarize yourself with the ceremony location and reception venues, making it an ideal choice for those who want to understand every detail first hand.

About us

Belmare Travel was established in 1984 as an Incoming Travel Agency, welcoming Clients to Sorrento and its surrounding area on Holiday, a popular destination with visitors dating back to Roman Times. The views over the Bay of Naples and the Volcano Vesuvius create a perfect backdrop that is unique e world- wide. With so much beauty and so much history, Belmare decided to open its doors to Couples wanting to get married in a romantic and suggestive location. So Belmare Travel Weddings & Events was created, and we are proud and enthusiastic to dedicate ourselves to crowning a dream of love Our know-how and experience have sealed the 'I do' for many couples, who have not only enjoyed the Romance of their Big Day but also all the other services that we have been able to assist them with. The Wedding Team comprises of Nada and Angela, who between them have chalked up 65 years of experience working in Tourism so be assured that you are in good hands!

What we can do for you

Belmare Travel Weddings & Events organizes the ceremony of your dream: civil & religious wedding, symbolic ceremony, renewal of vows, anniversaries, honeymoons, and promise of marriage.

Civil Ceremony

Civil ceremonies by Italian law must take place in a Town Hall or a property owned by the local government only. The ceremony, about 15/20 minutes long, is conducted in Italian and translated for you.

Anniversaries

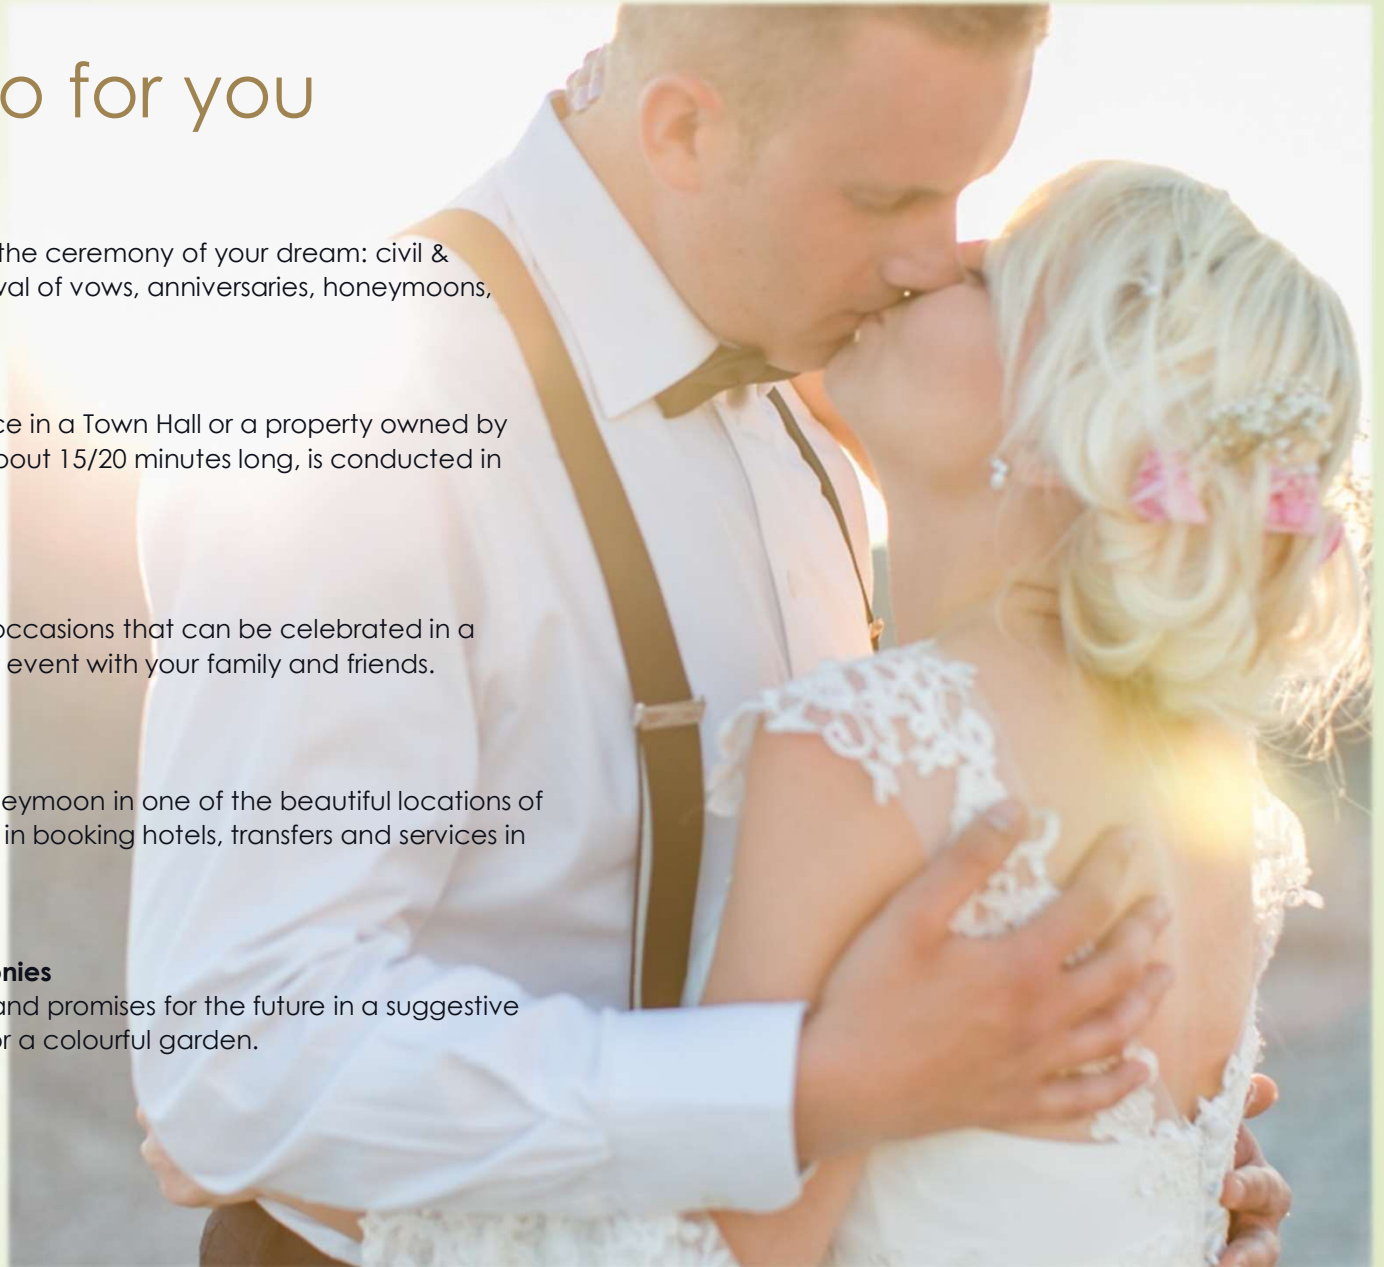

Cotton, silk or silver anniversaries are special occasions that can be celebrated in a romantic ceremony on your own or in a lively event with your family and friends.

Honeymoons

Complete your wedding with a romantic honeymoon in one of the beautiful locations of Italy. Our travel section will be happy to assist in booking hotels, transfers and services in all the main Italian destinations.

The promise of marriage & Symbolic Ceremonies

Celebrate your special moments, memories and promises for the future in a suggestive setting overlooking the sea, in a private villa or a colourful garden.

Civil Wedding

The most requested ceremony here in Italy is a civil ceremony.

Not only are these ceremonies legally binding, but they can take place in some very unique and picturesque locations.

From romantic medieval cloisters in Sorrento, the colourful outdoor terrace in Positano to the breathtaking and intimate 12th-century palazzo and gardens in Ravello; there is a style of venue to suit every individual requirement and taste.

Religious Wedding

Foreign citizens can be married in Italy according to Catholic rites.

A Roman Catholic ceremony must take place in a Catholic Church. Having a Catholic wedding in Italy is an easy process, with our assistance.

The Catholic documents and pre-wedding classes required are the same all over the world.

Symbolic Weddings and Renewal of Vows

For couples who do not want or cannot celebrate a formal civil or religious wedding ceremony in Italy, a symbolic ceremony is an ideal solution to avoid all legal documentation in Italy.

Symbolic Weddings in Italy are performed by professional English-speaking Celebrants provided by us and can take place anywhere in Italy as in historical manors, holiday villas, parks, Italian gardens, in a wonderful vineyard, on the beach, on a vessel... practically any location to please the individual couple.

Whether you are planning a wedding for 2 or 200 no event is too small or too large for us to handle, whatever your budget, large or small we can cater for all your needs be them simple or bling! We are happy to offer our services to everyone and can plan the entire event for you or simply assist you in certain aspects of your wedding.
